- (c) To appoint at least one scrutiny committee and members to serve upon it.
- (d) To consider whether to appoint a pool of members to be the observer representative on appeals bodies as described in paragraph 4 of this report.

- (f) To authorise the Head of Law and Governance to make any changes to the Constitution in consequence of Council's decisions on committee appointments and powers and duties.

NOTE: The appendix to this report will be circulated later once the Party Groups have decided who to appoint to Committees.

9 REPORT OF THE LEADER OF THE COUNCIL

Council will receive a report from the Leader on the appointment of the Deputy Leader of the Council, the appointment of Board Members and the Executive Scheme of Delegation.

10 COUNCIL SCHEME OF DELEGATION

The Chief Executive recommends Council to reaffirm for the Council Year 2013/14 its agreement to the Council's Scheme of Delegation set out in Section 5 of the Council's Constitution.

DECLARING INTERESTS

General duty

You must declare any disclosable pecuniary interests when the meeting reaches the item on the agenda headed "Declarations of Interest" or as soon as it becomes apparent to you.

What is a disclosable pecuniary interest?

Disclosable pecuniary interests relate to your employment; sponsorship (ie payment for expenses incurred by you in carrying out your duties as a councillor or towards your election expenses); contracts; land in the Council's area; licences for land in the Council's area; corporate tenancies; and securities. These declarations must be recorded in each councillor's Register of Interests which is publicly available on the Council's website.

Declaring an interest

Where any matter disclosed in your Register of Interests is being considered at a meeting, you must declare that you have an interest. You should also disclose the nature as well as the existence of the interest.

If you have a disclosable pecuniary interest, after having declared it at the meeting you must not participate in discussion or voting on the item and must withdraw from the meeting whilst the matter is discussed.

Members' Code of Conduct and public perception

Even if you do not have a disclosable pecuniary interest in a matter, the Members' Code of Conduct says that a member "must serve only the public interest and must never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person including yourself" and that "you must not place yourself in situations where your honesty and integrity may be questioned". What this means is that the matter of interests must be viewed within the context of the Code as a whole and regard should continue to be paid to the perception of the public.

¹Disclosable pecuniary interests that must be declared are not only those of the member her or himself but also those of the member's spouse, civil partner or person they are living with as husband or wife or as if they were civil partners.
