Public Nuisance:	7.3.1 to 7.3.6	LA3 to LA5

Home Office Statutory Guidance

9. Members are also referred to the statutory guidance issued by the Home Office. Of particular relevance to this application are the following matters:

Relevant Sections	Relevant Paragraph
Crime &amp; Disorder:	2.1 to 2.5
Public Nuisance:	2.14 to 2.20

10. A copy of the Home Office Statutory Guidance may be found online at:

Other Relevant Considerations

11. The Sub-Committee is reminded of its responsibilities under the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (to co-operate in the reduction of crime and disorder in Oxford) and the Human Rights Act (which guarantees the right to a fair hearing for all parties in the determination of their civil rights, and also provides for the protection of property, which may include licences in existence, and the protection of private and family life) when considering the fair balance between the interests of the applicant and the rights of local residents. Any decision taken by the Sub-Committee must be necessary and proportionate to the objectives being pursued.

12. Members are reminded that whenever they make a decision under the Licensing Act 2003, they have a duty to act with a view to promoting the licensing objectives.
13. When considering any representations, only those issues relating to the four licensing objectives should be considered and appropriate weight given to the importance and relevance of each representation.
14. In making its decision, Members must also have regard to the Home Office statutory guidance issued under section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003 and the Council's own Statement of Licensing Policy.
15. The Sub-Committee must take such of the following steps as it considers appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives:
  - a) Grant the licence in accordance with the application.
  - b) Modify the conditions of the operating schedule by altering or omitting or adding to them.
  - c) Exclude or restrict from the scope of the licence any of the licensable activities to which the application relates.
  - d) Reject the whole of the application.

The Sub-Committee may also grant the licence subject to different conditions for different parts of the premises or the different licensable activities.

16. Members are asked to note that they may not modify the conditions or reject whole or part of the application merely because they consider it desirable to do so. It must be appropriate to do so in order to promote the licensing objectives. Any such step must relate to a relevant representation made.
17. If Members grant the application, the details of the operating schedule will be incorporated into the licence as conditions. The licence will also be subject to certain mandatory conditions.
18. Members should note that the applicant or persons making representations have the right of appeal against the decision made by the Sub-Committee.

Section 19 of 21

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the following documents (which do not need to be certified).

1 LICENSE PLAN

Licensing Authority
Oxford City Council

26.9.17

I wish to oppose the application to sell alcohol at night in John Lewis's roof-top restaurant by Fancet Inn Ltd. on the following grounds: public nuisance, disorder and public safety.

Those of us who live along Thomas Street opposite the roof-top restaurant, have tried to keep the nights in our area as quiet as possible and with the demise of the Coven Club thought our problems were over. After a couple of alcoholic drinks, most people (including myself) talk more loudly and make poor drivers. 'Slightly' inebriated customers from the restaurant will keep us awake at night one way or another. Their cars will accelerate noisily away from the underground car park and there may be accidents. Thomas street carries fast through traffic including heavy lorries after 2200 hours.

Lastly, this area is to one side of the city centre and is a residential area. Please consider this when deciding whether or not to grant a licence to Fancet <sup>Inn</sup> Ltd

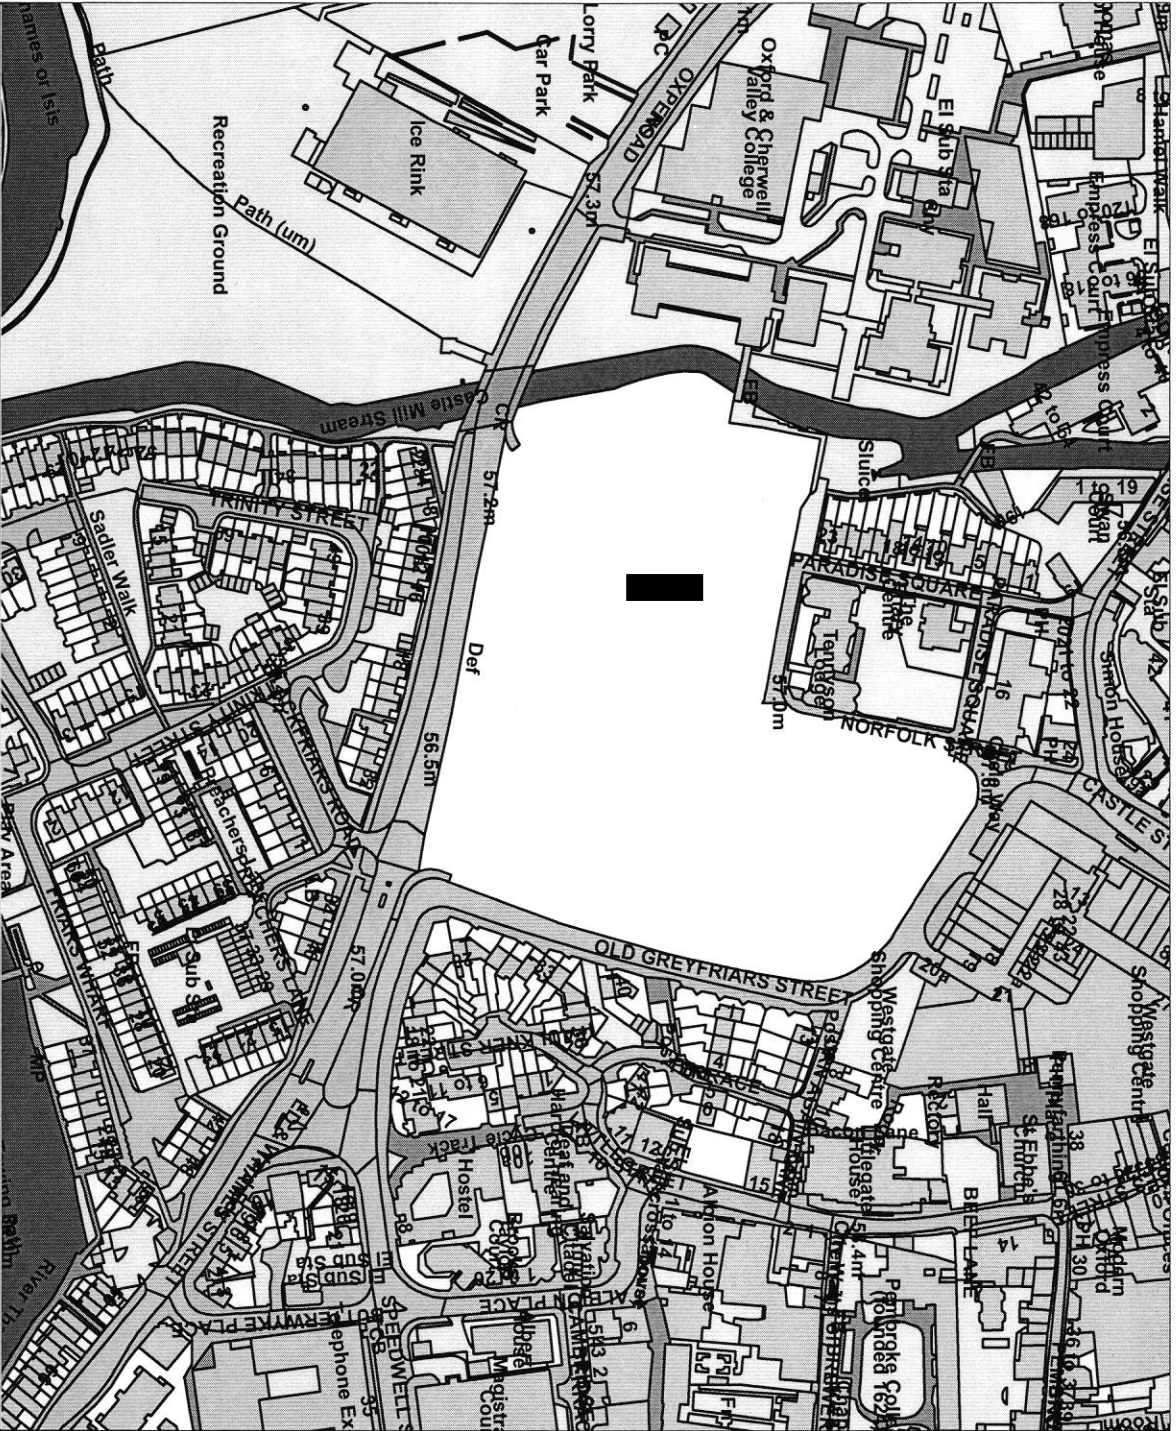

Yours sincerely
