Re: Application for permission to HIGH STREET.

Dear Sophie C. & Samantha,

Wish to state here that I have a specific location that I want to set up my business (vacant High Street).

I have been part time job (very hard to work with very little money) and doing volunteers works for:

1- Asylum Welcome (Dealing with De-lentration Matters),

2- HTM circles (Dealing with High Risk Offenders),

3- Victim Support (Dealing with victims Matters).

And my brother here in Oxford since His living with Job Seekers Allowance, - He want to back work, unfortunately his English it's very poor... (still his study English).

As a volunteer to assist and collect relevant information for a variety of cases ranging from minor to allowance benefit for same time now, my family is ready to sponsor my business for me and as such, it will mean the world to me if you could grant me this golden opportunity to undertake all this important venture.

We would like to have a chance, pls!
I would like to inform you my Trailer will be clean and high standards, it will have Liability Insurance, daily hygiene food recording, Assist people with disabilities, the garbage will be organized orderly and regular (I will registered with waste Collection Company), Also I am going to give my wasting oil for recycling companies (Boilers) and I am going to give all cartons recycling company and

I have been running Posh Nosh Abingdon for 10 years and I have been in Catering Business 24 years. You could check our records for Posh-Nosh for Hygiene records from Abingdon council. You will see they have always been good records.

I have a good customer base in PoshNosh Abingdon who will be my customers also when they are out in Oxford.

Nobody currently sell Panini and Baguettes on Vans. It will be good for customers to see a new Product for sale.

Regards.
