Our ref: 13/00784/STREET

Dear Mr Khan,

Street Trading Consent Holders Trading out of Hours
 Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982

An allegation has been made that many Street Trading Consent holders are trading longer than their permitted hours in the evening/early morning. Oxford City Council must remind all traders that by trading after the hours permitted on your Street Trading Consent you are committing an offence under the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 and the Licensing Act 2003.

Regular checks will be made to ensure compliance with conditions of Street Trading Consent. Any Consent holders caught trading out of hours risk revocation of their Consent and prosecution for the offences of trading without Street Trading Consent or a Premises Licence.

If you are unclear about any of the above information please contact the Licensing Team on 01865 252558 or by emailing licensingmisc@oxford.gov.uk.

Yours sincerely,

P.P. S. Howell

Dear Mr Khan,

Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982
Breach of Street Trading Consent Conditions

On Sunday 18th August at 03:10hrs two Council Officers observed you trading outside the permitted hours of your Street Trading Consent. By trading outside of these hours you have committed an offence under the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 and the Licensing Act 2003.

Regular checks are made to ensure compliance with conditions of Street Trading Consent. If you are caught trading outside your current hours of Consent again you risk revocation of Consent and prosecution for the offences of trading without Street Trading Consent or a Premises Licence. A copy of this letter has been sent to General Licensing who may contact you separately regarding the breach of your Premises Licence.

If you wish to look at extending your hours of trading or to discuss this matter further please contact me on the above contact details to arrange an appointment.

Yours sincerely,

Samantha Howell
