

Initial Equalities Impact Assessment screening form

Prior to making the decision, the Council's decision makers considered the following: guide to decision making under the Equality Act 2010:

*The Council is a public authority. All public authorities when exercising public functions are caught by the Equality Act 2010 which became law in December 2011. In making any decisions and proposals, the Council - specifically members and officers - are required to have due regard to the 9 protected characteristics defined under the Act. These protected characteristics are: age, disability, race, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation and marriage & civil partnership

The decision maker(s) must specifically consider those protected by the above characteristics:

- (a) To seek to ensure equality of treatment towards service users and employees;*
- (b) To identify the potential impact of the proposal or decision upon them.*

The Council will also ask that officers specifically consider whether:

- (A) The policy, strategy or spending decisions could have an impact on safeguarding and / or the welfare of children and vulnerable adults*
- (B) The proposed policy / service is likely to have any significant impact on mental wellbeing / community resilience (staff or residents)*

If the Council fails to give 'due regard', the Council is likely to face a Court challenge. This will either be through a judicial review of its decision making, the decision may be quashed and/or returned for it to have to be made again, which can be costly and time-consuming diversion for the Council. When considering 'due regard', decision makers must consider the following principles:

- 1. The decision maker is responsible for identifying whether there is an issue and discharging it. The threshold for one of the duties to be triggered is low and will be triggered where there is any issue which needs at least to be addressed.*
- 2. The duties arise before the decision or proposal is made, and not after and are ongoing. They require advance consideration by the policy decision maker with conscientiousness, rigour and an open mind. The duty is similar to an open consultation process.*
- 3. The decision maker must be aware of the needs of the duty.
- 4. The impact of the proposal or decision must be properly understood first. The amount of regard due will depend on the individual circumstances of each case. The greater the potential impact, the greater the regard.*
- 5. Get your facts straight first! There will be no due regard at all if the decision maker or those advising it make a fundamental error of fact (e.g. because of failing to properly inform yourself about the impact of a particular decision).*
- 6. What does 'due regard' entail?*
  - a. Collection and consideration of data and information;
  - b. Ensuring data is sufficient to assess the decision/any potential discrimination/ensure equality of opportunity;
  - c. Proper appreciation of the extent, nature and duration of the proposal or decision.

7. Responsibility for discharging can't be delegated or sub-contracted (although an equality impact assessment ("EIA") can be undertaken by officers, decision makers must be sufficiently aware of the outcome).
  8. Document the process of having due regard! Keep records and make it transparent! If in any doubt carry out an equality impact assessment ("EIA"), to test whether a policy will impact differentially or not. Evidentially an EIA will be the best way of defending a legal challenge. 1. Within the aims and objectives of the policy or strategy which group (s) of people has been identified as being potentially disadvantaged by your proposals? What are the equality impacts?

Compliance with national legislation applies equally to everyone and national legislation has been subjected to parliamentary scrutiny and an Equality Impact Assessment by the Government before it is implemented.

Dutyholders have a right to legal redress should they feel that an enforcement decision was unfairly/unlawfully taken; this can be via the Council's Complaints system, an appeal process, or at a court hearing. Service users can use the Council's Complaints system if they believe we have failed to adequately enforce the law.

The policy is based on templates provided by the Government's Better Regulation Delivery Office and has therefore been developed using nationally approved best practice.

By increasing the number of services covered by an enforcement policy the potential for actions causing inequality will be reduced.

The conclusion is that the Policy itself has no adverse equality impacts.

2. In brief, what changes are you planning to make to your current or proposed new or changed policy, strategy, procedure, project or service to minimise or eliminate the adverse equality impacts?

Please provide further details of the proposed actions, timetable for making the changes and the person(s) responsible for making the changes on the resultant action plan

There are no adverse equality impacts.

The current policy is being updated to bring it in line with legislative changes and the changes will result in regulatory activities carried out in more service areas being covered by a clear and consistent policy.

3. Please provide details of whom you will consult on the proposed changes and if you do not plan to consult, please provide the rationale behind that decision.

Please note that you are required to involve disabled people in decisions that impact on them

No consultation is planned. This is because the policy closely follows the template provided by the government for developing enforcement policies.

4. Can the adverse impacts you identified during the initial screening be justified without making any adjustments to the existing or new policy, strategy, procedure, project or service?

Please set out the basis on which you justify making no adjustments

No adverse equality impacts were identified.

5. You are legally required to monitor and review the proposed changes after implementation to check they work as planned and to screen for unexpected equality impacts.

Please provide details of how you will monitor/evaluate or review your proposals and when the review will take place

Enforcement activity is reviewed annually by each regulatory service as part of developing the following years Service Plan.

Enforcement Activity is monitored to ensure unexpected equality impacts do not occur. For example statutory notices have to be countersigned by senior officers, prosecutions have to be approved by Service Managers and then passed to Law and Governance for further scrutiny.

Lead officer responsible for signing off the EqIA: Ian Wright

Role: Service Manager

Date: 2nd November 2015

Note, please consider & include the following areas:

- Summary of the impacts of any individual policies
- Specific impact tests (e.g. statutory equality duties, social, regeneration and sustainability)
- Consultation
- Post implementation review plan (consider the basis for the review, objectives and how these will be measured, impacts and outcomes including the “unknown”)
- Potential data sources (attach hyperlinks including Government impact assessments or Oxfordshire data observatory information where relevant)
