Legal challenge	There is a risk of a legal challenge to the SPD once adopted	Threat	Any person with sufficient interest may apply to the High Court for permission to apply for a judicial review of the decision to adopt it. Applications should be made no later than 3 months after the date of adoption. They can be made after time but it is unusual for a Court to allow a challenge after 3 months	If successful the High Court would rule that the SPD be quashed wholly or in part	07.09.17	Tom Morris	3	2	3	2	2	1	The adopted Local Plan comprises the Core Strategy, Sites and Housing Allocations and the West End AAP. Within this context the West End AAP was prepared as a policy framework to guide future development and change the West End area of the City. The AAP was considered to be both a policy and delivery tool, and identified both the Oxford Railway Station and Becket Street car park as future development sites. The Oxford Station SPD is intended to build on the policy context in these documents particularly the West End AAP and set out key design principles for their development as part of the wider renaissance of the West End.
