11.2 Selection and appointment of civic office holders

The convention is that the civic office holders i.e. the Lord Mayor, the Deputy Lord Mayor and the Sheriff will be selected for nomination to Council on the basis of cumulative length of service. Members of the Cabinet cannot service as Lord Mayor or Deputy Lord Mayor.

For each of the civic offices the Leader will offer the nomination, for the next municipal year, to the longest serving eligible councillor (based on cumulative service at the start of that municipal year) who has not held that particular office. Should that councillor decline the Leader will proceed to the next longest serving eligible councillor until the nomination is accepted.

Should there be two or more councillors with the same length of service the Leader will make offers in alphabetical order using last names.

The results of this process will be announced by the Leader at the February Council meeting or one as close to this as possible. In City Council election years the outcome will be checked before the Annual Council meeting and should any of the councillors selected no longer be members of Council the Leader will offer the nomination again based on the process already described above.

At the Annual Council meeting the Lord Mayor will be elected and the Deputy Lord Mayor and Sheriff will be appointed. The current Lord Mayor shall preside over the election of his or her successor unless he or she is ineligible to do so, in which case the current Deputy Lord Mayor shall preside. No councillor shall preside over their own election as Lord Mayor, Deputy Lord Mayor or Sheriff.

Any petition presented as part of an address (11.12) directly to Council and that contains at least 1,500 signatures will not be debated at that meeting but at the next ordinary meeting.

Council will receive a report setting out the petition and the steps Council can take.

The petition organiser may address Council upon the petition for up to five minutes before the debate upon the petition at that next ordinary meeting.

If a Member wishes to put a substantive motion/recommendation on a petition they must let the Head of Law and Governance have that motion/recommendation by 10am on the working day before the Council meeting. Each ordinary meeting of Council shall receive a written report concerning the work of one of the partnerships upon which the Council is represented.

11.17 Reports by the Chair of the Scrutiny Committee

Each ordinary meeting of Council shall receive a written report from the Council's Scrutiny Committee on the work of the Committee. That report shall be included in the agenda of the meeting. The Chair of the Scrutiny Committee may report orally if there are matters arising from the work of the Committee that the Chair considers Council should know about without delay.

11.18 Motions on notice

(a) Giving notice of motions

Some motions may be moved without notice. These are listed at 11.19. For all other motions, with the exception of urgent cross-party motions, the full wording must be emailed to democraticservices@oxford.gov.uk or received by the Head of Law and Governance by 1.00 pm at least seven clear working days before the meeting. These motions will be reproduced on the agenda for the meeting.

Urgent cross-party motions supported in writing by all the Leaders of political groups on the Council may be submitted by 1.00 pm three working days before the Council meeting so that they may be circulated with the briefing note.

(c) Length of motions

(d) Listing motions on the agenda

Motions will appear on the agenda in an order that will rotate between the different political groups at each meeting. Subject to this rotation, motions will appear and be taken in the order they were received by the Head of Law and Governance:

- all cross party motions will be taken first:

This motion will be reproduced on the agenda for the meeting.

(h) Monitoring Officers' advice on motions

For motions to be effective they must be lawful and implementable.

The Monitoring Officer has a duty to ensure that the Council acts lawfully and properly and will review motions and motion amendments submitted by councillors prior to their publication to ensure they are consistent with these principles. If the Monitoring Officer has concerns that the publication or agreement of a motion or motion amendment submitted by a councillor would not be in the Council's interests, within these parameters, the Monitoring Officer will offer advice to the councillor who submitted the motion or motion amendment.

If the Monitoring Officer considers a motion or amendment to be unlawful, vexatious, defamatory, frivolous, offensive, beyond the powers and remit of the Council, related to employees or otherwise improper the Monitoring Officer will return it to the councillor who submitted it along with an explanation in writing about why it cannot be published in its current form.

The Monitoring Officer shall, if need be as a last resort, give a ruling as to whether the motion or amendment can be included on the agenda or briefing note circulated for the meeting.

The same amendment cannot be moved twice.

(h) Councillor changing their own motion

A councillor can change a motion they have moved without notice if both the meeting and the seconder agree. The meeting will accept or reject the change without discussion.

The councillor can only make changes that could have been made as an amendment.

(i) Right of reply

A councillor who moves a motion has a right to reply at the end of the debate, immediately before the vote.

Council will then vote on whether to go to next business. If Council agrees to go to next business, the original motion will not be voted on and will not become a resolution of Council.

If a motion to move to a vote is seconded and the Lord Mayor thinks the meeting has discussed the item enough, Council will vote on whether to take the vote on the original motion. If Council decides to take the vote, the mover of the original motion will have the right to reply. Then Council will vote on the original motion without further debate.

If a motion to adjourn the debate or meeting is seconded and the lord mayor thinks it is not possible to give the item enough discussion at the current meeting, Council will vote on whether to adjourn. The mover of the original motion will not have the right of reply before this vote.

(l) Points of order

A councillor can make a point of order at any time. The Lord Mayor will hear a point of order immediately. A point of order must be about the law or a Council procedure being broken. The councillor must say which law or procedure is being broken and how. The Lord Mayor will consider the Monitoring Officer's advice when deciding on a point of order and the Lord Mayor's decision will be final.

(m) Points of personal explanation

Any councillor can ask for the minutes to record whether they voted for or against or abstained on a vote. The request must be made immediately after the vote.

(f) Voting on appointments

If there are three or more candidates for a position and none has more than half the votes, the candidate with the fewest votes will be eliminated and a new vote taken. This will continue until one candidate has more than half the votes.

11.22 Officers

1 Regulation 2 of the Local Authorities (Standing Orders) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2014 provides that after any "budget decision meeting" the names of the persons who cast a vote for the decision or against the decision or who abstained from voting must be recorded. Council will consider whether to exclude the public before discussing the conditions, supervision, dismissal or conduct of any officer or former officer.

11.23 Excluding the public

The public can only be excluded if it is under the access to information rules (Part 15) or if they are making a personal attack (11.12 (i)) or disrupting the meeting (11.23).

11.24 Councillors' behaviour

(a) Speaking at Council

When they speak at Council, councillors must address the Lord Mayor. Only one councillor may speak at any one time.

(b) Lord Mayor standing

If the Lord Mayor stands during a debate, any councillor who is speaking must stop speaking. The meeting must be silent.

(c) Councillor not to be heard further

If a councillor keeps on disrupting the meeting, the Lord Mayor can move that the councillor is not heard further. If seconded, the motion will be voted on without being discussed.

(d) Councillor to leave the meeting

If Council has voted not to hear a councillor further and the councillor continues to disrupt the meeting, the Lord Mayor can move that the councillor leaves the meeting or that the meeting is adjourned. If seconded, the motion will be voted on without being discussed.

(e) General disturbance

If a group of councillors are making it impossible for Council to do its business, the lord mayor can halt the meeting for as long as necessary.

11.25 Disruption by the public

(a) Disruption by an individual

If a member of the public is disrupting the meeting, the Lord Mayor will warn them. If they carry on disrupting the meeting, the Lord Mayor can halt the meeting until they leave.

(b) Clearing part of the meeting room

If there is a general disturbance in a part of a meeting room open to the public, the Lord Mayor can have the area cleared.

11.26 Suspending and changing the procedures in this section

(a) Suspending the procedures in this section

All the Council procedures in this section can be suspended except 11.8 (changing the order of business), 11.9 (b) (no minutes at annual or special meetings) and 11.20 (e) (right to have individual vote recorded). A procedure can be suspended if at least half of all councillors are present and there is a simple majority in favour. No notice is needed for a motion to suspend a procedure. Procedures can only be suspended until the end of the meeting.

(b) Changing the Council procedures in this section

Any motion to change the procedures in this section must be proposed and seconded. After this, it will not be discussed until the next ordinary meeting of Council.
