Acceptable identification for the purposes of age verification will include a driving licence, passport or photographic identification bearing the “PASS” logo and the person’s date of birth. The duty manager will make appropriate enquiries and will determine whether the sale should be permitted.

Comments:	08/05/2021 8:08 PM There are already 5 shops selling alcohol in the immediate shopping area and 2 bars. During the summer the park area behind Matalan which ,is the proposed Lidl premises, is strewn with drinkers laying on the grass consuming alcohol. My family and myself have to walk past these drinkers and be subjected to their drunken comments. They sit on the bus stop benches and deliberately fall onto you to touch you up and put their arms around you. This is daily. During the colder months they gather on the benches in Templars retail park. There is no onsite security there, even if there was this would not extend to the path and park beyond where they urinate and vomit. Shoplifting is rife there, the alcoholics and drug users way of feeding there addictions. Another premises selling cheap alcohol here will fuel this problem. None of us feel safe as these individuals come into the shops we are working in and loiter in the area. Please, no more cheap alcohol sales in this area. I feel Lidl has no care for the community here when they wish to sell alcohol, let alone from 7am to 11pm at night.

Kind regards

Comments:	08/05/2021 8:21 PM Giving Lidl permission to sell alcohol on this premises would be detrimental to the community which is already suffering in Cowley. With the homeless shelter around the corner shop lifting, begging and people sitting around drinking from 8am onwards is rife. With alcohol for sale at such a cheap price this will only worsen

Comments:	08/05/2021 9:50 PM I object to this proposal. To add another store selling alcohol is fuelling the problem of antisocial drunken behaviour in the area, the lewd and threatening behaviour is making cowley unsafe and unwelcoming for the public. To add another store with an alcohol license is not what we need. My next complaint ties in with the amount of thefts. Stealing from stores and handbags, the John Allen centre has no on site security and the unhelpful addition of this store will just increase the risk of thefts with no on site security to protect the public of the stores already there.

Kind regards
