Introduction and background

1. Before the abolition of Courts of Quarter Sessions by the Courts Act 1971 the City Council as a borough council appointed a Recorder. The Recorder was the presiding judge at the City's Quarter Sessions.
2. When the Court Assize and Quarter Sessions were abolished under the Courts Act 1971 and replaced by the present system of Crown Courts and Recorders, former borough councils were given the power (Section 245 and 246, Local Government Act 1972) to appoint honorary recorders. The Honorary Recorder is the resident Judge at Agenda Item 17 65 the Crown Court. The resident Judge usually holds office for one or two four year terms.
3. The role of Honorary Recorder is purely ceremonial but the position of Honorary Recorder is nevertheless an important link between the City and the Courts. The Honorary Recorder (and former Honorary Recorders typically) is invited to the City's major civic events (e.g. Annual Council, Christmas reception, Remembrance Sunday). The Secretary of State and the Lord Chancellor have appointed His Honour Judge Gordon Risius CB to the position of Resident Judge at Oxford Crown Court. Judge Julian Hall was the previous Honorary Recorder having been appointed to that position by Council in 2002 for as long as he held the position of Resident Judge.

4. The Secretary of State and the Lord Chancellor have appointed Her Honour Judge Maria Lamb to the position of Resident Judge at Oxford Crown Court. Judge Pringle was the previous Honorary Recorder having been appointed to that position by Council in 2024 for as long as he held the position of Resident Judge. Previous holders of the position are listed for interest in the annex to this report.
