Purpose

1. The update paper attached to this report (Appendix One) and six supporting appendices provide an annual update on the arrangements and activities of the Oxfordshire Children's Trust Board and outlines the Council's initiatives for children and young people in Oxford.

The Oxfordshire Children's Trust Board (CTB)

2. The Oxfordshire Children's Trust Board (CTB) is a strategic partnership focused on improving health and wellbeing outcomes for children and young people in Oxfordshire.
3. Following the inspection of SEND services in Oxfordshire by OFSTED and the Care Quality Commission in July 2023 a decision was taken by Oxfordshire County Council to overhaul the Children's Trust Board. The update paper (Appendix One) details the re-formed CTB arrangements, strategic priorities, and the Council's contributions to these efforts.
4. Oxfordshire County Council has produced a new Children and Young People's Plan 2024-28 (Appendix Four), which places a welcome increased focus on supporting the learning and educational attainment of children from disadvantaged households.

Special Education Needs and Disabilities (SEND) inspection 2023

5. The update paper (Appendix One) summarises progress following the OFSTED SEND inspection, which found significant failings.
6. In response, local authorities and health services have created an improvement plan and a roadmap to enhance SEND services, focusing on better Education, Health and Care Plans (EHCPs) and timely support for children.
7. The plan includes gathering feedback, improving communication, and ensuring high-quality services, with progress monitored regularly.

Financial implications

- 9. There are no financial implications for Oxford City Council arising from this report.

Legal issues

- 10. There are no legal implications for the Council arising directly from this report.

Level of risk

- 11. There are no risk implications for the Council arising from this report.

Equalities impact

- 12. Under its public sector equality duty the council must, in the exercise of its functions, have due regard to the need to:
 - a. eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under this Act;
 - b. advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it;
 - c. foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.
- 13. The Council discharges its public sector equality duty in relation to its safeguarding responsibilities through policies and key strategies related to Children and Young People - such as the Thriving Communities Strategy 2023 to 2027, the Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Strategy and Housing, Homelessness and Rough Sleeping Strategy.

14. Furthermore, the work by both the CTB and the Council is a positive contribution to the protected characteristic of children and young people.

15. The Council will continue to monitor equalities impact as programmes grow and develop.

Carbon and Environmental Considerations

16. There are no carbon and environmental implications for the Council arising from this report.
